SPIRITUALISM OUT DONE And the Spiritualistic frauds of the DAVENPORT BROTHERS

Eclipsed by the young and talented ST. GEORGE SISTERS! THE WONDER OF MODERN TIMES

Grand Drawing Room Seances of the celebrated ST. GEORGE SISTERS, (EMILIE and KATE.) who will introduce the far-famed SPIRITUAL FRAUD OF THE MYSTERIOUS CABINET, in which the unaccountable manifestations of the so-called SPIRIT HANDS AND ARMS, RINGING OF BELLS. RATTLING AND FLIGHT OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, AND MYSTIC AP-PARATUS Will by performed, claimed by the DAVENPORT BROTHERS to be performed by SPIRITUALISM, but will, on this occasion be done without the aid of the SPIRITS. This feat is without a doubt one of the about it. This feat is without a doubt one of the most PERFECT AND SCIENTIFIC that has ever been invented, and has BAFFLED THE CALCULATIONS OF THE WISEST wherever it has been introduced.

THE REBEL RAID. Its Progress and Magnitude—Fighting near Frederick, Md.—The Enemy Repulsed by General Wallace—Hagerstown Levied Upon -Its Authorities Pay $20,000-The Excitement in Pennsylvan a - Designs of the Invaders-Estimates of their Strength -They Comprise a Considerable Portion of Lee's Army-Highly Important Report of a Prisoner-Latest Rumors, etc.

[Special Dispatch to the Chronicle.] Skirmishing near Frederick. BALTIMORE, July 7 .- I have this moment conversed with a gentleman who left Frederick city at half past two o'clock this afternoon. Fighting was going on a few miles out of Frederick when my informant left, and there was skirmishing nearly all day. The rebels did not number over five hundred cavalry—supposed to be Moseby's men. No rebel infantry were in sight. Casualties very few. Our forces are quite strong in and around Fred-alarmed. Shells Thrown. BALTIMORE, July 7 .- There has been some fighting near Frederick during the afternoon. The rebels threw several shells into the city. One fell near the residence of Bradley Johnson and another near the Court House.

[Associated Press Dispatches.] Hagerstown Under Contribution. PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—A man from Hagerstown, just arrived at Greencastle, says McCausland's command, formerly Jenkins', 1,500 strong, cavalry and mounted infantry, and one battery, entered Hagerstown vester-day, and left at 11 o'clock by the Frederick turnpike, where the main body has all gone. Small parties returned this morning. A requisition was made on the people for fifteen hundred outfits and twenty thousand dollars, under threats of burning the town, which was

Harper's Ferry. BALTIMORE, JTLY 7, 12.45 p. m.-General Wallace is at the Monocacy directing operations for gnarding the lower fords, and has a good force of cavalry and mounted infantry scouting through the country in that direction There had been no sign of the enemy's cavalry yet seen in the neighborhood of the Monocacy. Those that have advanced on Hagerstown and Middletown have crossed at the fords above Harper's Ferry. There was believed, up to 11 o'clock this morning, to be no rebel force in Maryland this side of Harper's Ferry. Our troops hold the Point of Rocks and all the country up to Sandy Hook, though rebel cavalry and infantry are visible on the Virginia shore, and occasionally throw shot and shell across the river.

Active movements of troops are going on, both east and west, which it is not proper, for prudential reasons, to particularize.

The railroad is still unobstructed as far as Sandy Hook, except by an occasional shot or shell from the enemy on the other side. Nothing definite is known as to the damage done to the road beyond Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg. though it is believed that its destruction was one of the main objects of the raid, and it is to be presumed that they have accomplished all within their power.

There is good reason to believe that General Hunter will be on the trail of the enemy to-day with a heavy force coming from the West. He is said to have communicated with General Sigel yesterday, and instructed him to hold Maryland Heights to the last extremity.

We learn from York, Harrisburg, and the Cumberland Valley that the excitement among the people is more intense than during any previous invasion. Hundreds of men, women and children have passed through York on their way to the Susquehanna, and the roads were lined with horses, cattle, and wagons loaded with goods and provisions, being driven in the same direction. Many have hidden their stores and cattle in the mountains. The work of concealing and removing property from the Valley has been in progress for several days, and the probability is that the enemy will obtain but little plander. Hagerstown, before it was occupied by the rebels, had been similarly cleared of goods, and the stores were all actually empty. ally empty.

The excitement at Chambersburg this morning on hearing that Hagerstown was occupied, and that the rebel cavalry were advancing on Greencastle, is represented as most intense. The people were, however, arming, and apparently determined to join the troops collected there in making a vigorous resistance. All the roads were lined with riflemen determined to fight on their own hook. General Couch was in command, and it is evident that Chambersburg would not be surrendered again without

The Raid a Serious Oue.

BALTIMORE, July 7-945 p. m.—There can no longer be any doubts that Gen. Lee, has sent a considerable portion of his army in this direction. The American has received the following special telegram: FREDERICK, July 7.—About 10 o'clock this morning Col. Clendening, of the 8th Illinois cavalry, with 300 men and two pieces of Alexander's Baltimore battery, made a reconnoissance to Middletown, about five miles from Frederick, where they met the enemy in strong force—infantry, cavairy and artillery.

After a sharp fight our forces were repulsed and fell back on Frederick, the enemy slowly pursuing. Large numbers of stragglers are arriving at Monocacy, and are sent at once to the front by Gen. Wallace. The enemy are reported to be in full force on the Hagerstown turnpike.

FREDERICK, July 7.—The enemy is now one mile from town, on the Hagerstown pike. All the sick and Government stores have been removed. Reinforcements are arriving. From Loudoun County, Va.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—Reliable reports from Londonn county, Va., say there has been no rebel force in the county, with the exception of Moseby, with some two hundred and fifty to three hundred men. About one-half of this number crossed the river, and committed the depredations at the Point of Rocks on Monday. They made another attempt to cross on Tuesday, but were deterred by the appearance of some of our cavalry. They have tallen back, but guard the roads leading to the river to prevent the loyal citizens from communicating with the Maryland shore. Details of Interest.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—Trains on the Northern and Central railroad have all arrived safely to-night. Much excitement continues at Harrisburg and throughout the whole val-ley. It is believed that the rebel object is to destroy the railroad bridges on the Susquebanna, and out the Pennsylvania Central railroad.

The people of Westminster, Carroll county, Maryland, are greatly excited. The Western Maryland road is running regularly.

The Union Leagues of Baltimore, and City Guard, are holding meetings to-night and making preparations for defence. There are important military movements, also, not proper to publish. There is nothing later since my dispatch from Frederick. The number of rebels in that vicinity is not over 5 0 cavalry.

There has been some skirmishing at Monocacy Junction. All the accounts so far received speak of immense plundering and destruction of property; but it is still believed that the rebel force in Maryland is not so large as has been reported.

Success of General Wallace.
BALTINORS, July 7—Midnight.—Gen. Wallace has met with a success at Frederick. He has repulsed the rebels thus far in all their efforts to drive him from the town.

The Enemy Repulsed Three Times.

BALTIMORE, July 7.—The following particulars are gathered from headquarters from information received their to-night:
This afternoon the rebel advance made an effort to gain the bridge over the Monocacy. General Wallace, with only a small portion of his force, moved out to check them. He formed in line of battle about a mile eastward of the town, and shortly after 4 o'clock fighting com-menced, and lasted, with more or less severity, up to 8 o'clock, when the rebels, after being three times repulsed, finally retired, leaving us in possession of the ground.

During the action several shells fell into the city, but did no damage of moment. The citizens viewed the fight from housetops and the outskirts. General Wallace is confident of holding

Report of a Prisoner. HARRISEURG, July 7 .- The headquarters of Gen. Couch were removed from Chambersburg to this cuy to day, with a view of facilitating the organization of the militia recently called out by the Governor.

Headquarters here are still in communication with Greencastle, but it is almost impossible to get anything but vague and unsatisfactory reports of the rebel movements beyond that point. It is evident, however, that a considerable force of rebels has concentrated near Hagerstown. A dispatch, received a little before moon today, states that two rebel regiments—one of intantry, and the other of cavalry—were bivouscking last night on the road near Mid-dieburg, about three miles this side of the Sia'e line, and that their pickets were seen by the Federal scouts two miles south of Green.

A rebel prisoner captured in a skirmish at Hagerstown, day before yesterday, states that the present raid is not only to procure horses, but crops and provisions: that it is headed by Lee, and composed of Ewell's and Longstreet's corps, and is an effort to invade Pennsylvania and other Northern States. The capture of Baltimore and the destruction of the national capital are also aimed at. While Lee is thus operating against Washington city, Beauregard has been left in comerick. mand at Petersburg, where he has sufficient force, so our retel informant states. The rebels expect to hold Grant in check and pre-vent his advancing on Richmond. A dispatch just received from Greencastle states the rebel force has evacuated Hagerstown, retiring on the road towards Frederick. This would seem to indicate a precantionary movement on their part to prevent being surprised by Hunter's forces. Previous to the rebels retiring from Hagerstown, they levied a contribution of 1,500 outfits and $20,000, which was paid under threats of burning the town. The Bridge over the Shenandoah in Flames. BALTIMORE, July 7.—A despatch from Sandy Hook to-night says the rebels are again burning property in that place. Large fires are now burning. The bridge over the Shenandoah is also in flames, the conflagration casting a glow of light over the country for miles The Nevada Convention.

Convention met to-day and organized with Neely Johnson, ex-governor of California, as president, Hon. M. Gillispie, secretary, and A. J. Marsh, official reporter. The session will be a short one, and the probabilities are that the constitution will be adopted by the people. From Fortress Monroe.
